PERCY HUNT SUPPORTER'S CLUB

Although this map is a printed copy of a Mss map based on a O.S. Landranger Map N^o 71 source, it is included here purely because it is likely to be a accurate up to date portrayal of the Hunt boundaries as at 1984. The area covered is from Bamburgh South to the A1 around Longframlington/ Felton. Strangely it does not identify the Hunt Meets.

Size- 31.8" x 21.8". It is a multi coloured portrait style sheet, Upper R is a compass pointer/arrow N above a red Fox's head and a yellow crescent, Lower L is a sl box panel containing explanation notes and symbols, Scale is given as 'SCALE 1:50 000' with a scale bar '0-4 Kilometres / 0-2 Miles' '2cm=1 kilometre 1 1/4"=1 Mile', 'Map of Percy Hunt country produced by The Percy Hunt Supporter's Club, 1984.' NOTES. from 'Antique Maps of Leicestershire by R.K.Baum 1971' pp 38

Master of the Grammar School at Ashby de la Zouch, who carried out a survey of Leicestershire. Prior the son of the steward to Sir John Danvers of Swithland Hall had at the age of only fifteen, been in charge of the village school and later curate at Quorn and Woodhousee. The survey [County] started in 1775 and was completed in 1777.

"Mr Prior's Pocket Map of Leicestershire for Sportsmen" 1787 22" x 20"

The title of this little known map goes on to describe it as : “ with additions from the adjoining counties.” and in fact it covers the area between Birmingham in the west to Grantham in the east and from Ashbourne in the north to Rugby in the south. It is a fox hunting map and all the principal fox coverts are shown coloured. The imprint on the map states that it was : “Sold by W.Dawson No. 7 Paternoster Row London and I.Gregory in Leicester.”

A current location for this map is unknown so if found it must be considered extremely rare.
