

'SPORTING REVIEW MAGAZINE HUNT MAPS

Publisher- I.Mitchell Mapmaker- W.Hughes

Maps in the 'Sporting Review' by John.Mitchell, engraved by William Hughes and published monthly during the Hunt season 1841-42, thirteen in total located and were all issued uncoloured, the early maps carried a hunting vignette view, two of which have a Es. 'Map of the Various Meets of the QUORN HOUNDS' has a Es of 'R.Baker fc.' and the 'Map of the Various Meets of the COTTESMORE HOUNDS. has a Es 'R.Baker Sc.' both at the Lower R corner of the vignette. The Cottesmore exists in two other states both lacking this Baker Es. All the maps were reissued after 1842, this time carrying a dl border and with the Parks/Woods coloured in green, and with the Pi & Es of 'I.Mitchell' and 'W.Hughes' erased. Some of these maps also appear in 'Hunting Reminiscences by Nimrod.' published by Rudolph Ackerman 1843, again uncoloured, lacking both Publishers and Engravers imprints but has the Es of 'R.Baker fc.' on the The Quorn vignette. Later still a photo-lithographic copy appeared in Baily's Magazine for 1899 i.e. 'Map of the Various Meets of the Belvoir Hounds'.

Any text in blue e.g. 'CAPT SPICER' informs the reader of some form of change or amendment to the previous copy and might be a addition, deletion, or even a change of font from lower to uppercase or visa versa.

Description- Standard to all maps

State / i

Size- 8.4" x 4.5", 21.2cm x11.5cm [no border, printed surface measurements only]

Upper centre Hunt title frequently in outline uppercase and several [Royal Hounds,Belvoir, Quorn, Cottesmore] also carry a vignette beneath the title. Main and adjacent counties are named, roads and railways shown, map detail is confined to Cities/Town names, Houses of the Gentry, and Meet places. There is always a scale and often a note of explanation usually lower R or L. All maps are Portrait layout with the exception of Mr Farquharson's Hounds which is Landscape. Pi along the bottom 'London:Published January 1842 for the Proprietor of the Sporting Review by I.Mitchell,33,Old Bond Street.'Meets are marked by a 'x' often accompanied by a N°, this is probably a 'run' [the distance in miles].

NB. The shorthand terms Pi,Es & Ds equate to Publishers imprint,Engravers signature and Drawers signature respectively.
